

Testimonials

"Chad genuinely cared about our opinions and ideas and was there to guide us when we weren't quite sure what we wanted....We couldn't have made a better choice of photographers to capture our special day! I would recommend Chad to anyone."

— Joe & Carrie Gorden

"The two things that stick in my mind regarding Chad on our special day were, one, that I never even knew he was there, but he took shots during the ceremony that were perfect, and I am grateful for, and two, he came up with on the spot shots outdoors that turned out so wonderfully that I couldn't have chosen a better set up. Chad makes your day last forever with his capture of moments you never knew existed. Thanks, Chad!"

— Jason & Becky Spaulding

"Chad Mitchell Photography was professional, courteous, and very helpful from the first phone call through the entire process. CMP helped make our wedding an unforgettable experience, and we are forever grateful."

— Kelly Brown

"Chad gave us something that we can look at and cherish for the rest of our lives."

— Sara Blair

"We are obviously extremely pleased with our decision to use Chad Mitchell for our wedding photographer and would highly recommend him! Our pictures will last a lifetime and our gratitude goes to Chad."

— Sean & Karen Snook

"The only difficulty we had with Chad's photos was choosing which ones to order reprints or enlargements of because they are all so great!"

— Katie Anselment

About Us

Chad N. Mitchell, owner of Chad Mitchell Photography, is a native to the Central Illinois area. He graduated from Millikin University with a B.A. in Writing and earned his Certificate in Professional Photography from the New York Institute of Photography. What started out as a career in writing with a pen has blossomed into a career of writing with light. With a background in advertising and design, Mr. Mitchell has an unique eye for detail and a discriminating style that sets him apart from the norm. When the emotions of a wedding and the creativity of the photographic art meet, Chad is there to capture your special day like no other professional.

Our Philosophy

At Chad Mitchell Photography, we specialize in storyteller wedding photography. What does this mean? This is more than simple candid. This is more than blending into the scene unnoticed. This is about capturing the details and essence of your once-in-a-lifetime experience and transferring the emotions to print. At Chad Mitchell Photography, we pay special attention to creating images that last a lifetime.

Our Goal

Our goal at Chad Mitchell Photography is to provide you with the best possible art and service at the most reasonable price — without sacrificing on quality. We are not about the one-time sale. Our goal is to provide you with a priceless service, so you return to us for future photographic needs. What starts as wedding photography, leads to a lifetime of creating and capturing history through newborn portraits, family portraits, senior photos, and eventually the wedding photos of the next generation.

The Engagement

We offer a free engagement sitting with all of our wedding packages. This also includes complimentary digital photo submissions to your local newspapers. This session can take place in our studio, on-location at your favorite special place, or both!

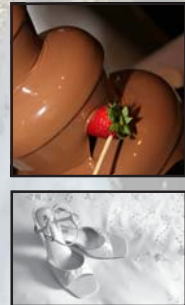

Fine Bridal Portraiture

This is a special service Chad Mitchell Photography offers to the most discriminating bride. Ever since you were a little girl, you dreamed of the perfect dress for your wedding day. This session is all about you. Planned around a practice hair or make-up session, we schedule this "no-rush" session weeks before your wedding day. Some brides purchase the prints as wallet favors for guests on their wedding day. Other brides display a framed print at their reception. The idea is that you are the center of attention, and we are sensitive to your needs.

Storyteller Wedding Photography

Chad Mitchell Photography specializes in timeless storyteller wedding photography. We are about capturing the emotions of your wedding day. We are about being there to shoot those once-in-a-lifetime moments. Those butterfly kisses. Those tears of joy. Those moments that make your heart sing and your soul dance. We take pride in blending raw emotions and excitement with photographic art. Call us today for your free consultation!
